

Chemung County Democratic Committee

Chairperson's Corner

What an election season 2010 has turned out to be! The County Committee is fielding nine candidates for the County Legislature...the first time in many years that we have had this many candidates.

Ted Bennett and Mark Hitchcock are unopposed. We welcome political newcomers Irv Mower, Jim Loomis, Chris Callas, Aola Jackson and Don Wojtyna who are challenging the status quo in the 1st, 6th, 8th and 14th districts. Aola is running for the open seat in the 11th, vacated by Kevin McInerny. Former Councilman Dan Royle is running for the 13th and last, but not least, incumbent Andy Patros faces a strong challenge in the 15th,

We salute all of these folks for taking the time out of their busy lives to make this big commitment, We salute current legislators Ted Bennett and Andy Patros for all of the hard work they do and for being willing to continue to do so. We thank long time legislator Kevin McInerny for his many years of service on the County Legislature. We also thank Terry McLaughlin for his years of service on the Legislature and City Council.

These are all going to be tough races this year, Please contact our candidates if you would like to volunteer to help or make contributions to their campaigns.
